

Privacy Notice for Parents

How we use your information

Introduction

This notice is to help you understand how and why we collect personal information about you and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your own information.

If you have any questions about this notice please contact the Foundation's Data Manager.

What is "personal information"?

Personal information is information that identifies you as an individual and relates to you.

This includes your contact details, next of kin and financial information. We will also keep a record of our communications with you.

Our legal bases for using your information

This section contains information about the legal bases that we are relying on when handling your information.

The two tables below contain a general description of the different legal bases but we have also used a colour code system so that you can see which bases we are relying on for each of the purposes described at paragraphs 1 to 34 below.

Legitimate interests ("L")

This means that the Foundation is using your information when this is necessary for the Foundation's legitimate interests except when your interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests.

Specifically, the Foundation has a legitimate interest in:

- providing educational services to your child and to other children;
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of your child, other children and our employees;
- promoting the objects and interests of the Foundation. This includes fundraising and using photographs of you at our school events in promotional material. It also includes making sure that we are able to enforce our rights against you, for example, so that we can contact you if unpaid school fees are due;
- keeping the Foundation buildings safe;
- using your information in connection with legal disputes. For example, if you or your child bring a claim against the Foundation;

- protecting the Foundation's reputation;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the Foundation; and
- ensuring that all relevant legal obligations of the Foundation are complied with (for example in relation to inspections).

In addition, your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others. For example, another school will have a legitimate interest in knowing if you have not paid School fees that are due to us.

Necessary for contract ("CT")

We will need to use your information in order to perform our obligations under our contract with you and for you to perform your obligations as well. For example, we need your name and contact details so that we can update you on your child's progress and so that we can contact you if there is a concern.

Legal obligation ("LO")

Where the Foundation needs to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example to report a concern to Children's Services. We may also have to disclose your information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so.

Vital interests ("VI")

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or carrying out public tasks) ("PI")

The following are examples of when we use your information to perform tasks in the public interest:

- providing your child with an education;
- safeguarding and promoting your welfare, your child's welfare and the welfare of other children;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the Foundation; and
- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations.

The Foundation must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories are as follows: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation.

Substantial public interest ("SPI")

The Foundation is also allowed to use special categories of personal information where doing so is necessary in the substantial public interest. This is similar to "public interest" in the table above.

Social protection and social security laws

Also the Foundation may use your information to comply with social protection law (e.g. to look after your child) and social security laws. Social protection law is concerned with preventing, managing, and overcoming situations that adversely affect people's wellbeing.

Vital interests ("VI")

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Legal claims ("LC")

We are allowed to use your information if this is necessary in relation to legal claims. For example, this allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers.

- c. we work with travel companies and other organisations to organise school trips both within the UK and abroad.

We use third party technology providers to operate certain functions across the Foundation such as our Management Information System (SIMS), safeguarding reporting system (MyConcern), trips and visits planning and management system (Evolve), events management, ParentMail and our sports website.

We obtain information about you from admissions forms, from your child's previous school and from communications with you personally. We may also get information from professionals such as doctors and from local authorities.

Criminal offence information

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations or to exercise our rights.

Less commonly, we may use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where it is necessary in relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect our pupils and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

More than one basis

As you will see from this Notice, in some cases we will rely on more than one basis above for a particular use of your information – for example, we may rely on contract, legitimate interests and public interest bases when using information to provide you with an education. In addition, the basis that we will rely on for a particular purpose may vary depending on the circumstances or we may move from one of the legal bases listed above to another as circumstances change. For example, as a safeguarding matter becomes more serious, we may start to rely on legal obligation to share personal information with the local authority in addition to the other legal bases which are noted for safeguarding purposes.

Consent

We may ask for your consent to use your information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the bases in the table above. For example, we may ask for your consent before taking or using some photographs and videos if the photograph or video is more intrusive and we cannot rely on legitimate interests. If we ask for your consent to use your personal information you can take back this consent at any time. Any use of your information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to the Data Manager if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

In certain circumstances, we may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK, for example when we store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas or communicate with you when you are overseas (for example, during school holidays if you live in another country).

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here:

https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries_en

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK, although we will endeavour to ensure that it is kept secure and handled according to data protection laws.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Data Manager.

For how long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child. We will keep some information after your child has left the Foundation, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

What decisions can you make about your information?

Since 25 May 2018 data protection legislation has given you a number of rights regarding your information. Some of these were new rights whilst others were built on your previous rights. Your rights are as follows:

- Rectification: if information the Foundation holds about you is incorrect, you can ask us to correct it.
- Access: you can also ask what information we hold about you and be provided with a copy. This is commonly known as making a subject access request. We will also give you extra information, such as why we use this information about you, where it came from and what types of people we have sent it to.
- Deletion: you can ask us to delete the information that we hold about you in certain circumstances. For example, where we no longer need the information.
- Portability: you can request the transfer of your information to you or to a third party in a format that can be read by computer. This applies where (a) the information has been provided by you; (b) the basis that we are relying on to process your information is consent or contract (please see "Our legal bases for using your information" above); and (c) the information is being processed by us on computer.

- Restriction: our use of information about you may be restricted in some cases. For example, if you tell us that the information is inaccurate we can only use it for limited purposes while we check its accuracy.
- Object: you may object to us using your information where:
 - a. we are using it for direct marketing purposes (e.g. to send you the Foundation schools newsletters);
 - b. the legal basis on which we are relying is either legitimate interests or performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Please see the section "Our legal bases for using your information" above; and
 - c. we are using it for historical or scientific research purposes or archiving purposes. For example, we may keep photographs of you at a Foundation event for historical reasons.

The Data Manager can give you more information about your data protection rights.

Any individual wishing to access, erase, restrict processing, obtain, object or amend their personal data, should put their request in writing to the Data Manager.

The Foundation will endeavour to respond to any such written requests as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event within statutory time limits, which is one month in the case of requests for access to information. The Foundation will be better able to respond quickly to smaller, targeted requests for information. If the request is manifestly excessive or similar to previous requests, the Foundation may ask you to reconsider or charge a proportionate fee, but only where Data Protection Law allows it.

You should be aware that certain types of data are exempt from the right of access. This may include information which identifies other individuals, or information which is subject to legal professional privilege. The Foundation is also not required to disclose any pupil examination scripts (though examiners' comments may fall to be disclosed), nor any confidential reference given by the Foundation for the purposes of the education, training or employment of any individual.

Data accuracy and security

The Foundation will endeavour to ensure that all personal data held in relation to an individual is as up to date and accurate as possible. You should notify the relevant School Office of any significant changes to important information, such as contact details, held about you.

You have the right to request that any out-of-date, irrelevant or inaccurate information about you is erased or corrected (subject to certain exemptions and limitations under Data Protection Law): please see above for details of why the Foundation may need to process your data, and of who you may contact if you disagree.

The Foundation will take appropriate technical and organisational steps to ensure the security of personal data about individuals, including policies concerning the use of technology and devices, and access to school systems. All staff and governors will be made aware of this policy and their duties under Data Protection Law and receive relevant training, if necessary.

This Policy

The Foundation will update this Privacy Notice from time to time. Any substantial changes that affect your rights will be provided to you directly as far as reasonably practicable.

Further information and guidance

The Data Manager is the person responsible at the Foundation for managing how we look after personal information and deciding how it is shared.

Like other organisations we need to keep your information safe, up to date, only use it for what we said we would, destroy it when we no longer need it and, most importantly, treat the information we get fairly.

This notice is to explain how we use your personal information. The Data Manager can answer any questions which you may have.

This privacy notice does not, and is not intended to, give you any rights which you did not already have. For example, it does not give you any additional contractual rights.

Please speak to the Data Manager if:

- you object to us using your information for marketing purposes e.g. to send you information about school events. We will stop using your information for marketing purposes if you tell us not to; or
- you would like us to update the information we hold about you; or
- you would prefer that certain information is kept confidential.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform our obligations under the contract we have entered into with you. We may also be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the welfare of your child and their classmates).

If you consider that we have not acted properly when using your personal information you should use the Foundation's Complaints Procedures and also inform the Data Manager. You can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") - ico.org.uk - although the ICO recommends that steps are taken to resolve the matter with us before involving them.
